

Women & Philanthropy Programming

2017-18

Special Program: Museum Tour

Radical Women: Latin American Art, 1960-1985

Special curated exhibition tour at the Hammer Museum with reception at AMMO.

Fall Business Meeting and Program

When Women Ruled the World

Dr. Kara Cooney, Associate Professor of Egyptian Art and Architecture, discussed why almost no evidence of successful, long-term female leaders exists from the ancient world, even though there were strong women leaders during this time.

*Fall Event

The Language of Friendship: The Role of Talk in an Understudied Relationship with Author Deborah Tannen

New York Times bestselling author Deborah Tannen deconstructed the ways women friends talk and its impact from her illuminating and validating new book.

Winter Business Meeting and Program

A Peek Into the Tiny World of Nanoscience at UCLA's CNSI

Staff from the California NanoSystems Institute shared how UCLA is at the forefront of nanotechnology and ways it's revolutionizing modern society, with hands-on activities and a tour of the microscopes.

Family Day: Women's Softball

UCLA vs. Stanford

Special activities, pre-game reception, reserved seats.

Casual Lunch

Hosted by a member at a local restaurant.

*Spring Event

Is Artificial Intelligence Something to Be Feared or Embraced

Panel discussion with professors from across the UCLA campus.

Spring Business Meeting and Program

Understanding the Importance of Nonverbal Messages

Kerri Johnson, Chair of Communications Studies, discussed her research that examines nonverbal aspects of interpersonal communication and the impact of visual communication.

*Networking Event

Stories of Success Series: Doing Well While Doing Good

Co-sponsored with Anderson School of Management & Start-Up UCLA. Faculty and alumnae shared advice and insights about starting and operating as a socially conscious enterprise, plus networking opportunities.

Special Program: Student Performance

"The Mother of Us All" a joint collaboration with Dept of Theater, Opera UCLA, UCLA Philharmonia, Alpert School of Music.